

Where to Fish in Moray

This leaflet gives details of the Angling Associations and tackle shops where you can buy permits to fish the Rivers Findhorn, Nairn and Lossie.

The River Findhorn flowing from its source high in the Monadhliath Mountains 60 miles to the outflow at Findhorn on the Moray Firth, is a most attractive salmon river, with a succession of deep pools and fast runs throughout its length. Forres Angling Association control four miles of double bank fishing on the lower River Findhorn.

Membership and the related season permit is available only to people living permanently in the postal address of IV36; for more details see <https://www.forresangling.co.uk/> or contact Campbell Ross at f.ross266@btinternet.com

Visitor Daily Permit 11th Feb to 30th Sep £45.00

Visitor Weekly Permit 11th Feb to 30th Sept £225

Maximum of six visitors allowed per day

Daily and weekly permits available only through the Association website <https://www.forresangling.co.uk/> or from Fishpal.com

Findhorn Angling Club operates in Findhorn Bay.

Fishing permits are available from the Post Office in Findhorn.

Day Permit £5.00 Weekly Permit £15.00 Fortnightly £20.00

The River Lossie flows northwards through Moray to Elgin, entering the Moray Firth at Lossiemouth. The River Lossie can provide some excellent salmon and sea trout fishing.

Elgin Angling Association control the lower 10 miles of the River Lossie.

Permits are available from Bill Fraser 07599562971 or Roy Russel 07592 544070 or

The Angling Centre, Moss Street, Elgin, 01343 547615.

Annual Membership £80, Senior/Concession £55, Junior (under 16) FREE

Visitor Day Permit £20 (No day tickets after 30th September) Visitor Weekly Permit £80

Dallas Angling Association control a stretch of the River Lossie at Dallas. Contact Ian Sutherland on 01343 890420 or Charlie Gerrie on 01343 890310. Visitor Permits : Day Ticket Adults £7, Junior £6, Visitor Weekly Ticket £17 Dallas Residents £10 Senior Citizens £5 Juniors Free

The River Nairn rises in the Monadhliath Mountains and flows north-eastwards for 38 miles into the Moray Firth at Nairn. The Nairn Angling Association holds 8 miles of fishing offering the angler some of the best Salmon & Sea Trout Association water in Scotland. The fishing's are over some 7 beats and include some excellent fly water.

www.nairnanglingassociation.co.uk

Season Tickets

Adult £140

Intermediate (17-21) £15

Senior or Disability £100

Junior (Up to 17) FREE

Non Resident £175

Weekly Tickets

Adult £150 Junior £35

Day Tickets

Adult £40 Junior £10

Available from Pat Fraser

41 High St, Nairn IV12 4AG

01667 453038 or

Fishpal.com

Findhorn Nairn & Lossie Rivers Trust

07501 767801

admin@fnlrt.org.uk

Fisheries Office, Logie Steading, Dunphail, Forres IV36 2QN

www.fnlrt.org.uk

<https://www.facebook.com/fnlrtrust>